

Exception to UNC Charlotte Academic Policy and Procedure: Grading 2020-2021 Academic Year

The Faculty Executive Committee has approved the following amendment to the current Academic Policy guiding Pass/No Credit (P/N) for undergraduate students for the 2020-2021 academic year (Fall 2020, Spring 2021, Summer 2021):

- UNC Charlotte will allow undergraduate students to elect Pass/No Credit (P/N) for up to three undergraduate courses for the entire academic year, no more than two per term.
 - Fall 2020 Term: Up to two courses can be elected for the Fall 2020 term by December 14.
 - Spring and Summer 2021 Terms: Students must elect Pass/No Credit (P/N) by the date identified in the Academic Calendar.
- Students will be allowed to elect P/N for any enrolled course(s), however if a student elects a grade of Pass (P) they will not be able to progress to any course that requires a C or better without departmental approval.

This amends the current Academic Policy guiding Pass/No Credit for the 2020-2021 academic year and applies to undergraduate students only.

For additional details, please see the Fall 2020 Instruction Site.